2.2 If the participant is not shortlisted at the end of Phase 1 of the Event, the participant shall not be entitled to further participation in the Event.

2.3 The Organisers reserve the right to amend, modify or cancel the Event, or any phase, programme, workshop, training or mentoring offered during the Event, without prior notice to the participant.

3. SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

3.1 The participant may be required to propose solutions, submit materials, create applications and/or other software, or amend existing applications and/or other software during the Event (“Submissions”). The details of Submissions required will be notified to the participant by the Organisers at appropriate stages during the Event.

3.2 All Submissions must:

- (a) be original work and not be wholly or partly owned by any third party or subject to any third party right or interest; and
- (b) not violate any Intellectual Property Rights (defined at clause 8.6) or other rights, including but not limited to contract and/or privacy rights, of any third party.

3.3 All Submissions (save for any open source software included therein) must be new. Any work that has been submitted for other competitions (whether in Singapore or overseas) or has been used for commercial purposes and/or has been published in any media will not be accepted.

3.4 The participant may use Application Program Interfaces, libraries, software development kits and other tools that have been made available and authorised for public use, to create, develop or amend the Software, to the extent the participant has been authorised to use them. Tools made available and authorised for public use refers to those that:

- (a) have been made publicly available on the internet to date; and
- (b) are searchable through common search engines, and accessible thereafter either free or with authorised access.

3.5 If any application and/or software in the Submissions (any such application or software, “Software”) requires any additional third party software to function, the participant must provide the Organisers and their respective parents, subsidiaries and affiliated or associated companies (collectively, the “Organiser Group”) with access to and use of such additional software and obtain the requisite rights, consents and/or licenses for the Organiser Group to access and use such additional third party software, at no cost to the Organisers. The participant shall indemnify each Organiser, any entity in the Organiser Group and all of their respective past and present agents, officers, directors, employees and representatives from and against all claims, obligations, liabilities, settlements, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including, but not limited to, any direct, indirect or consequential losses, loss of profit, loss of reputation and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other professional costs and expenses) which any of them may suffer or incur resulting from, arising out of or in connection with any of their use of the third party software for the purposes set out in these Terms and Conditions.

- 3.6 The participant may submit Software that includes the use of open source software, provided that:
- (a) the participant complies with applicable open source licenses; and
  - (b) the applicable open source license terms do not require the release, disclosure or distribution of any part of the Software or Submissions back to the open source community or to any third party under any circumstances.
- 3.7 The participant must ensure that the Software can be successfully installed and can function on mobile devices or desktop/laptop computers, as applicable.
- 3.8 The participant shall not make available or disclose any Software or Submissions to the public during the period of his participation in the Event without the prior written consent of the Organisers.

4. JUDGING

- 4.1 Eligible Submissions will be evaluated by one or more panels of judges selected by the Organisers (the “Judging Panel”). The Judging Panel may be employees of the Organisers or external, and may change before or during the judging period. Judging may take place in one or more rounds with one or more panels of judges, at the discretion of the Organisers.
- 4.2 The Judging Panel will score eligible Submissions using the following criteria (the “Judging Criteria”):
- (a) product alignment for the Organisers;
  - (b) commercial viability and scalability;
  - (c) team strength and technical competency; and
  - (d) overall quality of the Submission.

The Organisers and/or the Judging Panel may revise the Judging Criteria in their sole discretion without notification to the participant.

- 4.3 The Judging Panel is not obligated to test any Software, and may choose to score the Submissions based solely on the presentation slides provided in the Submission.
- 4.4 In the event of a tie in any competition that may be conducted during the Event, the Judging Panel will in their sole discretion determine the winner.

- 4.5 The decision of the Judging Panel and/or the Organisers shall be final and conclusive, and no correspondence will be entertained.

5. PRIZES

- 5.1 The Organisers may in their discretion select the participant to work with the Organisers, gain access to third party business mentors and receive introductions to potential customers and investors.
- 5.2 If the participant is shortlisted at the end of Phase 1 of the Event, the Organisers may, either separately or jointly, or through a third party entity nominated by the Organisers, offer the participant a cash award of S$20,000 (the “Cash Award”) as consideration for an aggregate of up to 5% equity in the participant (the “Investment”). For the avoidance of doubt, the participant shall not be entitled to the Cash Award if it does not offer equity to the Organisers or the nominated third party.
- 5.3 The Organisers may require the participant to incorporate a business entity in Singapore for the purposes of the Investment.
- 5.4 The Organisers reserve the right at any time, in their absolute discretion, to modify, substitute, withdraw, or cancel any prize without prior notice, without having to disclose any reason therefore, and without any payment or compensation whatsoever.
- 5.5 The participant and Submissions must comply fully with these Terms and Conditions in order to be eligible for any prizes.

6. DISQUALIFICATION

- 6.1 Without limiting the Organisers’ other rights and remedies, the Organisers reserve the right, in their sole discretion, to:
- (a) disqualify any participant or representative of the participant who:
    - (i) fails to comply with any provision of these Terms and Conditions;
    - (ii) cheats or tampers with the operation of the Event, or otherwise acts in a disruptive or inappropriate manner; or
    - (iii) engages in conduct that is unlawful, offensive, or otherwise leads the Organisers to conclude, in their sole discretion, that public association with the participant could cause controversy or embarrassment to the Organisers or their partners; and
  - (b) disqualify any Submissions that do not meet any of these Terms and Conditions, including but not limited to Submissions containing inaccurate, invalid or misleading information.
- 6.2 The Organisers reserve the right to assess the participant’s eligibility and compliance with these Terms and Conditions at any point during the Event. The participant must provide prompt assistance when called upon.

- 6.3 Any Submissions or work of the participant deemed by the Judging Panel or the Organisers in their sole discretion to be obscene, incendiary, defamatory, sexually explicit, or otherwise objectionable or inappropriate will not be considered for this Event, and the participant may be disqualified from the Event.
- 6.4 The participant must not communicate with or attempt to influence the Judging Panel. Failure to adhere to this clause may result in disqualification of the participant.
- 6.5 For the avoidance of doubt, if any representative of the participant in the Event breaches any provision of this clause 6, the Organisers are entitled to disqualify the participant.

7. FLIGHT AND WORKSPACE

- 7.1 The Organisers may assist the participant to purchase round-trip economy-class flight tickets to Singapore if the representatives of the participant reside overseas. Requests for purchase of such flight tickets must be submitted to the Organisers at least two (2) weeks before the commencement of the Event. Any such request shall be decided in the Organisers' sole discretion, and the Organisers shall not at any time be obliged to purchase such flight tickets for the participant's representatives.
- 7.2 The participant shall be allocated working space at the Event premises during the Event by the Organisers. Any request for alteration of the allocated working space shall be decided in the Organisers' sole discretion.
- 7.3 The participant is responsible for settling the accommodation for its representatives during the Event.

8. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

- 8.1 All Intellectual Property Rights subsisting in materials including any Software, source code, documentation or other material (except any open source software incorporated into the Software or source code), whether created or developed independently by the participant or jointly with others, included in the Submissions shall continue to belong to the participant.
- 8.2 By making Submissions, the participant acknowledges and agrees that there may be other submissions in this Event and/or other marketing initiatives or challenges offered by the Organiser Group, or other materials developed by the Organiser Group or its contractors or agents (the "Similar Documents"), that may be similar or identical in theme, idea, format or other respects to the Submission. Unless prohibited by law, the participant waives any and all claims against each entity in the Organiser Group and their respective contractors and agents, in respect of such Similar Documents, including any claim that any compensation is due to the participant.
- 8.3 The participant hereby grants an irrevocable, perpetual, non-exclusive, royalty free, worldwide license to each entity in the Organiser Group and their respective contractors and agents, effective as of the date the participant submits his Application, to reproduce, communicate to the public, use, distribute, adapt and create derivative works of the Submissions or any part thereof, and to reproduce, communicate to the public, use and distribute such adaptations or derivative works for the purposes of and in relation to (a) the Event; and (b) the marketing, advertising and promotion of similar events.

8.4 The participant warrants that:

- (a) the participant or its employee(s) has/have created all Software and source code (save for any open source software included therein), documentation or other material included in the Submissions;
- (b) its participation in the Event and performance under the terms of these Terms and Conditions will not infringe the Intellectual Property Rights of any third party or cause it to be in breach of any obligations to a third party;
- (c) no third party has any right, title and/or interest in or to the Intellectual Property Rights in the Submissions; and
- (d) the use or exploitation by any entity in the Organiser Group of the Intellectual Property Rights in the Submissions will not infringe the Intellectual Property Rights or any other rights of any third party.

8.5 The participant shall indemnify each Organiser, any entity in the Organiser Group and all of their respective past and present agents, officers, directors, employees and representatives from and against all claims, obligations, liabilities, settlements, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including, but not limited to, any direct, indirect or consequential losses, loss of profit, loss of reputation and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other professional costs and expenses) which any of them may suffer or incur resulting from, arising out of or in connection any of their use or exploitation of the Intellectual Property Rights in the Submissions in accordance with these Terms and Conditions.

8.6 In these Terms and Conditions, “Intellectual Property Rights” shall include but is not limited to all patents, rights to inventions, copyright and related rights, moral rights, trade marks, trade names and domain names, rights in get-up, rights in goodwill or to sue for passing off, rights in designs, rights in computer software, database rights, rights in confidential information (including know-how and trade secrets) and any other rights subsisting or arising from such intellectual property, in each case whether registered or unregistered and including all applications (or rights to apply) for, and renewals or extensions of, such rights and all similar or equivalent rights or forms of protection which may now or in the future subsist in any part of the world.

9. RIGHT OF USAGE AND PUBLICITY

9.1 By entering the Event, the participant agrees, during and after the Event, to:

- (a) participate in any prize presentation ceremonies, media, promotional activity or publicity related to the Event in Singapore or elsewhere (“Publicity Activities”) without payment or compensation, if requested to do so by the Organisers;

- (b) not participate in any Publicity Activities without prior written consent by the Organisers; and
- (c) ensure that the Publicity Activities (including any content relating to the Event uploaded by the participant on any social media or internet platform) are not harmful to and do not negatively impact the integrity of the Organisers, the Organisers' business or the Event.

The above obligations shall continue notwithstanding the elimination of the participant from the Event or the cancellation or conclusion of the Event.

- 9.2 The participant acknowledges and agrees that the Organisers may display publicly, archive and reproduce any Submissions for broadcast, marketing, publicity and promotional purposes without any payment to the participant or the participant's consent. This includes, but is not limited to, posting or linking to the Submission on the Organisers' websites as well as the Organisers' proprietary social media channels and website, and display and promotion of any Submission in any other media worldwide.
- 9.3 The participant acknowledges that the Organisers cannot control the information the participant discloses to the Organisers or the Organisers' representatives in the course of participating in the Event, or what the Organisers or the Organisers' representatives will remember about the Submissions. The participant also understands that the Organisers will not restrict work assignments of the Organisers' representatives who have had access to any Submission. The participant agrees that the Organisers may use any information in the Organisers representatives' unaided memories in the development or deployment of the Organisers' products or services without liability or compensation to the participant. The participant will not receive any compensation or credit from the Organisers for use of any Submission in connection with this Event, save as expressly provided for under these Terms and Conditions. The Organisers are not responsible for any unauthorised use of the Submission by those accessing or viewing the Submission.
- 9.4 The Organisers are not obligated to use any Submission for any purpose.
- 9.5 The participant is not granted the permission to use or display any of the Organisers' or the Organiser Group's trademarks (e.g. logo) or rights in any form. The participant agrees to seek the prior written consent of the Organisers prior to promoting or publicising their participation or activities related to the Event.

10. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 10.1 The Organisers may disclose Confidential Information to the participant for the purposes of or in connection with this Event.
- 10.2 The participant agrees to use the Confidential Information only for the purposes of Submissions to the Organisers for this Event. The participant further agrees to keep the Confidential Information in strictest confidence and shall not, directly or indirectly, use for itself or on behalf of or disclose to any third party any Confidential Information received from the Organisers. This obligation shall continue without limit in time, notwithstanding the elimination of the participant from the Event or the cancellation or conclusion of the Event, but shall cease to apply to information which falls within Clauses 10.7(a) to 10.7(c).

- 10.3 The participant shall ensure that its employees, representatives, officers, agents, consultants or contractors comply with, and are subject to the confidentiality obligations of a standard equal to or higher than, this Clause 10.
- 10.4 The participant expressly understands that the Confidential Information disclosed by the Organisers is of a commercially valuable and highly sensitive nature, and that damages may be an inadequate compensation for breach of any of the covenants contained in this Clause 10. In the event that the Organisers discover that the conduct or threatened conduct of the participant, its employees, representatives, officers, agents, consultants or contractors (whether individually or collectively) is or will be in breach of this Clause 10, the Organisers may, subject to the court's discretion, restrain, by injunction, equitable relief or similar remedy, such conduct or threatened conduct.
- 10.5 The participant understands that the Organisers do not have any obligation to provide Confidential Information to the participant, that the Organisers do not make any representation or warranty with respect to the accuracy or completeness of the Confidential Information, and that the Organisers shall not be liable to the participant for any loss or damage resulting from the use of or reliance on any of the Confidential Information.
- 10.6 The Organisers may at any time demand from a participant the return of any documents containing Confidential Information whereupon the participant shall as soon as reasonably practicable after notice of such demand:
- (a) return such documents, and not make further use of the Confidential Information; and
  - (b) destroy any copies of such documents and any other document or other record reproducing, containing or made from or with reference to the Confidential Information, and provide certification of the same (if required by the Organisers),
- save, in each case, for any submission to or filings with governmental, tax or regulatory authorities.
- 10.7 In these Terms and Conditions, "Confidential Information" refers to any information which is proprietary and confidential to the Organisers, whether or not in relation to the Event, including but not limited to any information concerning the organisation, business, finances, transactions or affairs of the Organisers, secret or confidential information which relates to the Organisers, the Organisers' technology, designs, documentation, manuals, processes, systems, budgets, financial statements or information, accounts, dealers' lists, customer lists (including flight operational data, billing information or otherwise, and personal data (of passengers or otherwise), as well as all compilations or databases containing such data and information), marketing studies, drawings, notes, memoranda and the information contained therein, any information therein in respect of trade secrets, technology and technical or other information relating to the actual or proposed development, manufacture, analysis, marketing, sale or supply of any products or services by the Organisers and information and material which is either marked confidential or is by its nature intended to be exclusively for the knowledge of the participant alone, but does not include information which:

- (a) was known to or independently developed or obtained by the participant prior to the Event (as evidenced by the participant's records) or becomes known to the participant by the action of another person not in breach of any obligation of confidentiality owed to the Organisers;
- (b) is or becomes in the public domain otherwise than as a result of a breach of these Terms and Conditions; or
- (c) is required to be disclosed by law or by the rules of any recognised stock exchange, or governmental or other regulatory body, in which case the participant shall, if practicable, supply a copy of the required disclosure to the respective Organiser to whom the confidential information relates to before it is disclosed and incorporate any amendments reasonably required by such Organiser and which would not prevent the participant from complying with his legal obligations.

11. INDEMNITY & EXCLUSIONS OF LIABILITY

11.1 While reasonable care will be taken of the Submissions provided to the Organisers, the Organisers assume no responsibility for and shall have no liability in connection with:

- (a) any loss of or damage to the Submissions, or any other data, software or application of the participant, before, during, and/or after the Event;
- (b) any incorrect or inaccurate information, whether caused by the Organisers' electronic or printing error, or by any of the equipment or programming associated with or utilised in the Event;
- (c) technical failures of any kind, including, but not limited to malfunctions, interruptions, or disconnections in phone lines, internet connectivity or electronic transmission errors, or network hardware or software or failure of the Event's website;
- (d) unauthorised human intervention in any part of the entry process or the Event;
- (e) technical or human error which may occur in the administration of the Event or the processing of Submissions;
- (f) any injury or damage to persons or property which may be caused, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, from participation in the Event or receipt or use or misuse of any prize; or
- (g) incomplete, late, misdirected, damaged, lost, illegible, or incomprehensible Submissions or for address or e-mail address changes of the participant. Proof of sending or submitting shall not be deemed to be proof of receipt by the Organisers.

- 11.2 If for any reason any Submission is determined to have not been received or been erroneously deleted, lost, or otherwise destroyed or corrupted, the participant's sole remedy is to request the opportunity to resubmit the Submission. Such request must be made promptly after the participant knows or should have known there was a problem, and will be subject to the decision of the Organisers in its sole discretion.
- 11.3 The participant shall indemnify and hold harmless each Organiser, each entity in the Organiser Group, and any other organisations responsible for sponsoring, fulfilling, administering, advertising or promoting the Event, and all of their respective past and present agents, officers, directors, employees and representatives, (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all claims, losses, obligations, liabilities, settlements, expenses, damages and costs (including, but not limited to, any direct, indirect or consequential losses, loss of profit, loss of reputation and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other professional costs and expenses) which any of them may suffer or incur resulting from, arising out of or in connection with the Event, the participant's participation in the Event, and/or the act, default or omission of the participant and/or any of its representatives, officers, employees, contractors or agents.
- 11.4 Nothing in these Terms and Conditions limits or excludes the Organisers' liability for, death or personal injury caused by its negligence, fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation or any other liability which cannot be limited or excluded by applicable law.
- 11.5 Subject to Clause 11.4, the Organisers shall not be liable to the participant whether in contract, tort (including negligence), for breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, arising under or in connection with these Terms and Conditions for loss of agreements or contracts, loss of anticipated savings or any indirect or consequential loss.

12. GENERAL TERMS

- 12.1 The participant warrants and represents to the Organisers that:
- (a) it has full power and authority to enter into and perform its obligations under these Terms and Conditions and such other agreements and arrangements referred to in these Terms and Conditions;
  - (b) the entering into of these Terms and Conditions and the performance of its obligations under these Terms and Conditions will not result in a breach of any other agreement or arrangement to which it is a party; and
  - (c) it is not aware of any person having or intending to threaten or commence any proceedings to prohibit or otherwise challenge this transaction.
- 12.2 The participant shall, and shall procure that its employees, representatives, officers, agents, consultants or contractors shall, comply with these Terms and Conditions, any other instructions related to the Event, the Organisers' and/or the Judging Panel's decisions regarding the Event (which are final and binding), and all applicable laws and regulations.

- 12.3 The Organisers may modify any provision of these Terms and Conditions, at any time. The participant is responsible for checking them regularly. A copy of the latest version of these Terms and Conditions is available at the following URL: <http://propellasia.com/T&C.html>. By continuing to participate in the Event, the participant is deemed to agree to any updates to these Terms and Conditions.
- 12.4 The Organisers may also modify any timeline, start date/time or end date/time of the Event and/or its programme at the Organisers' sole discretion without posting updated terms and conditions or clarification. However where such a modification would adversely affect the participant, the Organisers will endeavour to give the participant notice of the change via the e-mail address provided in the Application.
- 12.5 In the event that the operation, security, or administration of the Event is in the Organisers' judgment impaired in any way, the Organisers may, in their sole discretion, without limitation:
- (a) suspend the Event to address the impairment and then resume the Event;
  - (b) award prizes according to the judging criteria set forth above from among the eligible Submissions received up to the time of the impairment;
  - (c) extend any deadlines, or
  - (d) take any other reasonable action as the Organisers deems necessary and appropriate to the circumstances.
- 12.6 The participant agrees that these Terms and Conditions and any disputes or claims arising out of or in connection with its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) or otherwise in connection with the Event ("Claims") are governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Singapore. The participant irrevocably agrees that any such Claim shall be resolved individually, without resort to any form of class action, and exclusively by the courts of Singapore.
- 12.7 The Organisers' failure to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions shall not constitute a waiver of that provision.
- 12.8 The participant agrees that the relationship amongst the participant and the Organisers is not a confidential, fiduciary, or other special relationship. Nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall render or be deemed to render either party as an employee, worker, agent or partner of the other party.
- 12.9 Entry to the Event is personal to the participant. No other person has any right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act (Cap 53B) to enforce the participant's rights under these Terms and Conditions or to enjoy any benefit of any prize.

13. PRIVACY AND PUBLICITY

- 13.1 The Organisers may collect personal data such as the name, NRIC or passport number, e-mail address and phone number of the participant's employees, representatives, officers, agents, consultants or contractors, when provided to the Organiser directly, or when third parties involved in the Event disclose such personal data to the Organisers.

The Organisers may also perform due diligence on the participant and/or its representatives (including but not limited to employment history and criminal records) during the judging or shortlisting of the participant and/or prior to investment in the participant. In addition, the participant's representatives may be filmed or photographed while participating in the Event and the Organisers may collect photographs, audio-visual footage, comments, and any other record of their participation in the Event.

13.2 The Organisers collect, use and disclose such personal data in order to administer the Event, for the Organisers' marketing and promotional purposes, and/or for the purposes of conducting the aforementioned due diligence on the participant and/or its representatives (the "Purposes").

13.3 The participant hereby:

(a) gives written consent to and authorises, both on its own behalf as well as on behalf of each of its employees, representatives, officers, agents, consultants or contractors, the Organisers to list, collect, use or disclose any personal data to any person, system or database (whether in Singapore or outside Singapore), for the Purposes; and

(b) represents and warrants that it has the full authority to give consent, authorisation and permission on behalf of each of its employees, representatives, officers, agents, consultants or contractors for the purposes of Clause 13.3(a). Where instructed by the Organisers, the participant shall provide the Organisers with evidence in a form as the Organisers deem appropriate that all such consents, authorisations and permissions have been obtained.

13.4 Personal data in the Organisers' care and control will be treated in accordance with the Organisers' Privacy Policy, found at the following URLs:

(a) <https://www.lendlease.com/sg/privacy/>; and

(b) <http://www.jll.com.sg/singapore/en-gb/privacy-statement>.

13.5 Where the participant submits information (including personal data) on a website or platform run by a third party in connection with this Event, such information may be used by that third party in accordance with that third party's own terms and conditions and privacy policy. Such third party websites, platforms or systems are not affiliated with or owned, operated, or controlled by the Organisers, and do not act as data intermediaries to process personal data on the Organisers' behalf. The Organisers cannot and do not assume responsibility for the content, privacy policies, or practices (including practices relating to the use, collection and disclosure of personal data) of such third parties. The participant is encouraged to review the relevant terms and conditions and privacy policies governing the use of the relevant third party websites, platforms or systems before submitting any information or personal data to such third parties.

13.6 By using third party websites, platforms or systems, the participant expressly relieves the Organisers from any and all liability in connection with (a) the access and use of such third party websites, platforms or systems; (b) any personal data submitted to such third party websites, platforms or systems; and/or (c) the acts, omissions or defaults of such third parties.
